

Hello Highly Favored of the Lord.

A great mighty, powerful spell was worked worldwide over the minds of parents and children on July 21. The Spirit of Witchcraft and delusion captured the hearts of the people of the world.

Did Harry Potter live or die? This seemed to be the most important question being asked in the entire world. As the waxing crescent moon watched, thousands of people queued at books shops and supermarkets around the world, waiting for Harry Potter and the Deathly Hallows to go on sale at the bewitching hour of midnight.

The magical world of Harry Potter sagas continues to capture the souls of parents and children while the Church people are no longer asleep! No, they have been awakening to the witchcraft evangelism of Satan's agents. Millions will never awaken again to the reality that Jesus is Lord and in the end, He wins. Jesus will rule throughout eternity while these millions who have foolishly followed the trail of darkness of a queen witch, J. K. Rowling, and all of her willing demons are cast with her in Satan's pit. (Matt 18:6), "But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea."

No, I didn't stand in line for hours, give the Devil $39.95 to read the demonic trash. Sad to say, many Christian parents took (drove) their little ones to get brainwashed into the powers of witchcraft. In Disney World, at the Harry Potter site, they have a room for gay children and a room for Christian home schooling moms.

What did you do on July 21, at midnight? Do you know how to defend your faith? Protect your children? Minister to your seduced Christian friends who have been bewitched? What would Jesus do? Many Christians simply say, who cares what He would do. Harry Potter is the most important fantasy being in the world. Rowling's spell-casting powers of darkness caught my imagination and besides, my child wants to know.

We met last night during this most powerful bewitchment of the children of the world and prayed. We prayed for those poor, satanically seduced, excited children last night during the spiritual rape of their minds and souls. What did you do? Were you at your local book store, supermarket, goggling and awing at the spectacular witchery of the costumes and the witchcraft symbols carried by the children? The little white owls clutched by the children. What did that symbolized? Molech is usually represented by the owl. Molech is the god in the Old Testament that the pagans sacrificed their children. Did we just witness the parents of the world sacrificing the souls of their children to Molech? Deuteronomy 7:25,26 gives a clear warning regarding graven images of these creatures. These images include drawings, imprints, diagrams, engravings, carvings, figurines, paintings, computer print outs, photographs, trinkets, artwork, jewelry and/or any other representation of mythological creatures.

Deuteronomy 7:25-26, "The graven images of their gods shall ye burn with fire: thou shalt not desire the silver or gold that is on them, nor take it unto thee, lest thou be snared therein: for it is an abomination to the LORD thy God." 26 "Neither shalt thou bring an abomination into thine house, lest thou be a cursed thing like it: but thou shalt utterly detest it, and thou shalt utterly abhor it; for it is a cursed thing."

In verse 25, the Word of God clearly instruct His people to destroy all things related to these fantasy items by burning them with fire. Furthermore, it tells us not to desire any silver or gold that is on them. God commands that the believer is not to desire, or take for personal reasons, or to give to any other individual under any circumstances. In this respect, God was very strict and commanded that there should not be even any "desire" for the item or any part of it. There should also be no emotional attachment to the objects. This includes articles that are inherited from family members, and friends. Of course, these articles also can include objects that are inherited from family members in the Masons, cult religions such as Bibles, religious articles and statues from the Catholic faith such as, Jesus, Mary, Joseph, and saints.

The Bible emphatically tells us not to bring these images into our home lest we become accursed like the accursed thing. In other words, the item is already cursed. If we take possession of it, we will bring the curse upon ourselves. We become accursed! Additionally, instead of being amused, intrigued, or charmed by the images, we should utterly detest and hate it.

Christians should unquestionably have no relationship with fantasy figures. Fantasy conditions the mind to ultimately receive the "depths of Satan," (Revelation 2:20-24). It also prepares a pathway into practicing witchcraft.

The ministry of Paul at Ephesus, preaching the living God, many people were convicted by the Holy Spirit and confessed their sins. They were immediately aware of their sins of practicing magical arts, magic and forms of sorcery. Many collected their books on witchcraft and burned them in the presence of all, Acts 19:18,19. It is reasonable to assume that part of the ungodly acts included the use of mythological objects and fantasy figures.

Witchcraft is based solely upon deception, fantasy figures are unreal and are concoctions of human imagination that are inspired and engineered by evil spirits therefore, they are abomination of God.

What about the spiritually violated children of the Harry Potter fantasy, did you pray for them? Oh I know, you just joined into fun, after all, it was just fun. Nothing more, nothing less, why do you, Pat Holliday, always want to spoil our fun? I do it because souls are at risk. May God have mercy on our children but you, parents, are going to be held responsible?

The apostle Paul speaks of two dreadful events that will occur just prior to Jesus' return. First, Paul reveals the Church in this last day that there will be a falling away from the faith. Second, that an evil spirit of the Antichrist will overtake many turning them to doctrines of devils.

It has infiltrated every aspect of our lives and has been a secret operation until just the last few years, (Psa. 2:3), says, "Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us."

God desires a people who will trust Him and His Word. When men cast aside God's laws, they do what is right in their own eyes. Despite how ungodly the world becomes, His people will see His deliverance! People's will for rebellion will continue until his demonic leaders bring the world to the brink of utter destruction. We, Christians may have to spend time in God's waiting room, having faith in Jesus, abiding, and contending with the wiles of Satan till the day of deliverance, but it will surely come. The Bible tells us so.

May God help us all.

His servant,

Pat Holliday
