The Express on Sunday a leading UK national paper of hundreds of years history covered Todd Bentley on 29 June. It makes clear why The UK wants him to stay in Canada. Its title gives you a clue.

Born-again child abuser's visit to 'cure cancer.

A TATTOOED and pierced faith healer who admits to sexually abusing a child and taking drugs has been booked to preach at a huge rally in Britain.

A Church of England bishop is so concerned by claims that Todd Bentley can cure cancer by kicking tumors out of bodies with his biker boots; he has pledged to investigate before the meetings take place at the NEC Arena, Birmingham.

Born-again Bentley also claims to have brought more than 20 people back from the dead at his Fresh Fires Ministry in Lakeland, Florida.

But the evangelist has a criminal past, and admits he was jailed as a juvenile for sex offences involving a boy aged under 10.

A fan of wrestling, he rants about how he hits or kicks people to rid them of tumors after receiving instructions from God.

In one televised session he said God asked him to grab a crippled woman's legs and bang them on the stage. He did, he claimed, and she was healed.

He added: "There was another lady worshipping and the spirit spoke to me and said, 'Kick her in the he face'.

"I went like this bam. Just as my boot made contact with her nose, she fell to the power of God.

"Another time I called up this Chinese gentleman and all of a sudden I went running down the aisle and hit the guy so hard he hit the ground and his tooth popped out of his mouth." When asked about striking sick people, Bentley told a US journalist: "There is not one instance I'm aware of where anybody was hurt. In every instance, they were actually healed.

"Sometimes when you're dealing with a demon spirit, it's done with great force." The NEC extravaganza comes because of Bentley's close links with British couple Tom and Sharon Baker, who run the Revival Fires church in Dudley, near Birmingham.

Their website announces his commitment to speak at four days of meetings at the NEC from September 20-24.

The Revival Fires website advertises £ 3,175 courses at the "School of the Supernatural". It promises students will be able to "move into supernatural signs, wonders and miracles".

THE SUNDAY EXPRESS held a phone in poll and 79% of the UK public voted to keep this child sex offender out of The UK.

The Sunday Express concluded.

CHURCH authorities are right to query the activities of Todd Bentley and his Fresh Fires Ministry.

Bentley, who was a criminal before he was "born again", claims to be able to raise the dead and cure diseases.

At his "church" in Florida, Bentley has been seen to punch members of his audience in order to heal them.

Now he is coming to Britain and the vast NEC centre in Birmingham has been booked for a series of healing events. He is expected to attract thousands and make many millions of pounds each night.

No doubt his shows are a spectacle that many enjoy but few ever see the consequences left among the frail by charlatans.

PLEASE KEEP TODD BENTLEY IN CANADA AND OUT OF THE UK.

Todd Bentley and his accomplices UK plans have collapsed after hostile media scrutiny. The 79% Sunday Express vote to keep out the convicted child abuser was followed up by two Sunday Mercury investigations into Trevor Baker the number one official Todd Bentley franchise in the UK. Baker turns out to be an ex-convict with convictions and prison time for dishonesty. He is now making millions from The Todd Bentley UK franchise and they were going to split $8 million US dollars at The NEC in Birmingham. After The Sunday Mercury a leading Birmingham newspaper revealed there were NO HEALINGS in The Trevor Baker/Todd Bentley ministry AND Trevor Baker told The BBC the raised from the dead claims were "just stories" and not true, The Birmingham event was immediately cancelled leaving many in The UK and Europe FURIOUS (who had booked planes and hotels and vacation time off work). The Sunday Mercury stories were advantages for foreign trips.

Todd Bentley exposed by ABC Nightline TV in USA as a charlatan. He handed out false phone numbers for the people he says he healed. There was no medical verifications whatever for any claims of healings. Even ICA partners of Todd Bentley such as Robert Ricardelli says his investigations reveal no healings, all 32 reports of back from the dead are false. He has called Todd Bentley a deceiver and a teller of untruths. He has described it all as a con and demonic. They are ICA partners but Ricardelli has said he may soon leave in protest at this dishonesty! Christians please wake up. You sincerely want a Jesus revival but chose the wrong person to back. Read Deuteronomy 13 anon. Dr Pat Holliday of <http://www.patholliday.com/> exposes Todd Bentley as a Satanist following Aleister Crowley teachings of being the "hub", "stargate", "gate" to Heaven without The Cross of Jesus Christ. Todd Bentley has accepted leadership of The William Branham heretical cult (on June 23 2008) which denies The Trinity, denies Original Sin, denies the need for The Cross of Jesus Christ, believes men are self-perfecting little gods and some men such as him can eat from the tree of life in rebellion to God and become immortal. Todd Bentley revels in The Branham anointing which he can transfer. UK franchises include Trevor Baker, Rev Mark Stibbe, Rupert Foxwell, Sharon Stone and Rev Julie Anderson. they transfer the Branham anointing at meetings in the UK.

Is there a correlation with the massive destructive forces of weather patterns and mystics Christians "Opening the Portals of the Heavens? Every day we have seen great devastating, raging forces demolishing cities in America. Is it God's judgments or unleashed fallen angels? I believe these open portals are doorways to demonic supernatural beings or fallen angels that are entering into our physical realms and they are causing great disasters. These furious angels in the whirlwind are being unleashed by these spiritually blinded so-called Christian ministers across our nation. Raging prophets of doom are speaking, pronouncing catastrophic curses against states, cities, churches, pastors, people, & things. They move under the power of unholy spiritual beings conjured from the "Third Heaven." There is no biblical authority for Christians to practice occult methods of wizards and witches. The New Christian Mystics have crossed over the line of God's grace are simply practicing Old Time Religious witchcraft.

A NEW COVENANT FOR OPENING THE GATE (MAGICAL CHANGE) THE GATE OF THE NATIONS

Wagner says, “In this year to open the gates, one gate that we must swing wide is the gate of change.”

Peter Wagner’s web site said, "This is a year to open the gates (Star Gates). Most of us think that the gate is a physical place that will appear in front of you. However, the first gate we must go through this Heaven's Gate! This is where we enter boldly into the Throne Room and receive super-abounding grace so we can leap through the place of the "new" in the earth! Consequently, on we will be convening a gathering in Dearborn to open the gate of change to realign the nations

TODD BENTLEY ~ “PORTAL TO THE FUTURE” A NEW KIND OF CHRISTIANITY ~ NEW AGE ~ NWO ~ CALL IT ANTICHRIST

Peter Wagner gives testimony about his appearance to “Commission and put his stamp of approval on Todd Bentley’s Florida Outpouring. He said, “It was the 82nd day of the Outpouring. Todd Bentley used his speaking time in giving the most detailed testimony so far of the “dark night of the soul” that he experienced for 18 months 2005-2007. It was a very remarkable and transparent confession of his pride during the ten years previously and details of the wilderness that God took him through to break the pride. He was very clear about his lack of discipline, his emotions out of control, his rejection of God, his dislike of reading scripture, public meltdown on the platform, memories of childhood rejection, loneliness, sexual abuse, his marriage on the brink of divorce, etc. He was so burnt out he cried 4 hours per day for 21 days straight. When it was over, God restored everything related to his staff, his marriage, his ministry, and his newly-refined personal character. This was a very remarkable and touching presentation. There was no hint of victimization or wanting a pity party. It was a confession of his sin and the consequences he paid for disobedience. Doris and I were very touched by this, and we were thankful to God for a window on Todd’s character that we didn’t expect to be so wide open to us. TODD BENTLEY ~”PORTAL TO THE FUTURE”

Wagner continues, “All this was in preparation for last night, June 23, when we held a ceremony of apostolic alignment for Todd Bentley. As you will see from the document I will attach, the gist was that Todd would be aligned with Ché Ahn, Bill Johnson and John Arnott, representing Revival Alliance, who would then commission him as the evangelist to lead the Lakeland Outpouring.

The scenario was that I took the podium and called around me Todd, Ché, Bill and John. I then called to the platform a number of apostles whom I had chosen to stand behind us: Stephen Strader of Lakeland FL, Karl Strader of Lakeland FL, Jeff Beacham of Sydney, Australia, Rick Joyner of Ft. Mill SC, Doris Wagner of Colorado Springs CO, Sharon Stone of Burton, England, Paco Garcia of Chiclana, Spain, Clarice Fluitt of

Monroe LA, Richard Maiden of Scottsdale AZ, Michael Maiden of Phoenix AZ, Joshua Fowler of Orlando FL, Barry Boucher of Ottawa, Canada, and Wesley Campbell of Kelowna, British Columbia, Canada. Unfortunately Bishop Bill Hamon had to cancel because of a travel problem. I then read the paper I am attaching and, despite several requests, I even desisted from telling a joke! When I finished, I handed the microphone to Ché and he was in charge.<sup>1</sup>

Aleister Crowley ~ Satanist Worshiper

Why should we be interested in the late Aleister Crowley CONNECTION TO contemporary mystical Christianity?

Daniel V. Boudillion writes, “The Englishman Aleister Crowley (1875 - 1947) was one of the most notorious occultists of his day, and perhaps of modern times. Self-styled as “The Beast 666,” he went out of his way to live up to it with his sensationalism and self-promotion. He wrote a number of textbooks on ceremonial magick, most of which are still in print today. He also founded and was head of a number of occult fraternities. In short, he exerted a significant influence on occult circles that has continued to grow dramatically, long after his death.”<sup>ii</sup>

This report presupposes two very outlandish things: that there are “aliens”, (fallen angels) and that some people (occultists) have “magickal powers”. It is not the point of this report to prove whether or not there are such beings or powers. What is known is that there are people who believe that there are such beings and believe that they have such powers. The crux of this report is based on what people believe, which may be very different from the way things really are. Please bear this in mind.<sup>iii</sup>

This report also recounts some very curious behavior on the part of a number of people. These behaviors and events actually did take place and are fact. However, the supposed results of these events are entirely subjective and entirely in the realm of belief. It is not my purpose to try to prove or disprove the beliefs of the people involved. It's what they did (and do) because of these beliefs that interest me.<sup>iv</sup>

The Amalantrah Working:

In January through March of 1918 Crowley began a series of magickal workings called the Amalantrah Workings in furnished rooms in Central Park West, New York City. These were performed via Sexual & Ceremonial Magick (his spelling) with the intent to invoke certain “intelligences” to physical manifestation. In actuality, the workings typically manifested as a series of visions and communications received through the mediumship of his partner, Roddie Minor.

Be that as it may, at least one such “intelligence” was brought into physical manifestation via the Magickal Portal they created. (A portal in this context is a “magickally” created rent in the fabric of time and space.) The entity that came through is the one pictured above left. Crowley maintained the picture is actually a portrait and drawn from real life. This entity either called itself “Lam,” or was named “Lam” by Crowley. Either way, he considered it to be of interdimensional origin, which was the term then for extraterrestrial. In communications with Lam, the symbolism of the egg featured prominently.

Crowley included the portrait of Lam in his Dead Souls exhibition held in Greenwich Village, New York, in 1919. In that same year it was published as a frontispiece labeled The Way to Crowley's commentary to Blavatsky's The Voice of the Silence. Beneath the picture was the following inscription: “LAM is the Tibetan word for Way or Path, and LAMA is He who Goeth, the specific title of the Gods of Egypt, the Treader of the Path, in Buddhist phraseology. Its numerical value is 71, the number of this book."

BENTLEY PREPARES TO ENSARE YOUR SOUL

Todd Bentley is presently preparing for his new assignment, "Opening up portals to cities around the world." The transfer of spirits that he received at his "Alignment Commission" from the Wagner's powerful reinforcing army came forth to release Bentley as the "Portal to the Future.

Andrew Strom warns, "Some people think the Lakeland revival is "winding down". This is far from the truth. Todd Bentley is still there every night – and recently announced that from Aug 23 he will be taking the revival all over the USA and also overseas - with huge meetings everywhere.

Here is how he puts it on his website- "Already we've had successful excursions to "test" the waters in places like Dallas, Concord, and Louisville. The Lord has shown me many more potential wells to uncap in the days, weeks, months, and perhaps even years to come—38 in all right now, including places like Knoxville, Atlanta, Spokane, and into Birmingham, England, and other key areas..." (~www.freshfire.ca).

Meanwhile I continue to get emails from all over the world telling me that vast numbers of Spirit-filled people everywhere are being sucked into this movement - often entire churches at a time. <sup>v</sup>

BORN AGAIN CHILD ABUSER'S VISIT TO 'CURE CANCER'

From The Express on Sunday 29 June - first a news report, second an editorial comment

But the evangelist has a criminal past, and admits he was jailed as a juvenile for sex offences involving a boy aged under 10.

His website says: "In his late teens, Todd had a dramatic encounter with the saving and delivering power of God." It says he was delivered from a lifestyle involving criminal activity, youth prisons, drugs, sex, satanic music and bondage" in a "miraculous conversion" compared to St Paul's on the road to Damascus.

"Todd was instantly transformed into a radical disciple and soul winning evangelist for Jesus." Canadian by birth, Bentley now preaches to thousands of believers from a marquee. A fan of wrestling, he rants about how he hits or kicks people to rid them of tumors after receiving instructions from God.

I agree, I don't think there has been one person on this site who Bentley has managed to convince that he is a bona fide believer. I have nothing against the 'Charismatic/Pentecostal' tradition but in doing some further research quite a bit of Bentley's story just doesn't add up. I suppose my thoughts were finally confirmed when I read about his 'money angels' scattering gold dust into the congregation. This was seen to be a precursor of a large collection. He has also had visitations from an Angel called 'Emma'.

I actually feel that Bentley has more occultic background than mainline Pentecostal/charismatic - Beware . My tip of the day: Bentley is a big time charlatan.

Are WAGNER's APOSTLES LEAVING??

-Andrew Strom.

Last week we published a number of strong statements against Lakeland by one of Peter Wagner's 'apostles' named Robert Ricciardelli. For those who are not aware, Peter Wagner heads up an organization devoted to setting in place "apostles" over the church. This is known as the 'New Apostolic Reformation' (NAR), and it has been very controversial. I myself have never seen it as any kind of true "Reformation" - because all it seems to do is set up another level of hierarchy over the existing ones. I also question whether many of the "apostles" are true apostles - but that is another story. Suffice it to say, that Wagner runs one of the most powerful and far-reaching global networks in the Charismatic world.

I don't know if Peter Wagner fully realized what he was doing when he went down to Lakeland and publicly endorsed Todd Bentley and the 'revival' there. But clearly he started a rift in his own movement that may very well almost tear it apart.

However, before we discuss this further, it is also important to note that even some "pro-Lakeland" churches are beginning to have second thoughts about supporting that movement - as more factual information begins to emerge about what is really going on.

The following was written by the leader of a "pro-Lakeland" church - and forwarded to me this week. (I have removed the identity of both the leader and the church). This really is an amazing admission for such a "pro-Lakeland" leader to make:

"Hi staff,

We need to talk, probably as a staff, and go through what I've found out. I had a long talk with Robert Ricciardelli. He's no revival critic... He loves revival, believes in healing, prophecy and all the rest and is delighted to hear about the healings we've had here. He's a close friend of Stephen Strader... He's in an accountability relationship with Lee Grady (editor of Charisma Magazine) and is a writer for Charisma on occasion. He's part of C. Peter Wagner's apostolic network, recognized by Peter as an apostle. I've seen the man's website and he's legit, not a heresy hunter.

"The reports he has given me are firsthand, not hearsay. I am deeply troubled, grieved and tormented at what I'm hearing. He attributes most of the anointing at Lakeland to Roy Fields (worship leader). I agree. Roy is nothing but clean and God shows up hugely when he leads worship. I can go into detail later about what is surfacing, but there are huge lapses of integrity going on... Much embellishment. Many claims have been made that simply are not true. The Charisma crew has researched it. I want to weep. My heart is breaking. For now, to be safe and for the sake of integrity, we need to stop speaking about the claimed resurrections. Three of them have been checked out with the doctors and EMTs involved and found never to have happened at all. Todd has been confronted with this and has not adjusted the numbers in his claims. Not a single one of the other claimed resurrections can be substantiated despite diligent effort to do so. Even after Stephen Strader brought it down to 13 (and even those couldn't be substantiated) Todd ran it back up to 27 and more. Misrepresentation and embellishment!

"On the financial front, Todd recently told the crowd that God had told him that there were 1,000 people who would give $1,000 and that they would be blessed 1,000-fold. Robert called Stephen Strader to confront the unbiblical nature of that appeal. It came out that Todd admitted he hadn't heard that from God, that it was just an idea he had so that they could raise money to build a big stadium. Robert challenged them to issue an apology the following night based on that false claim of being told by God and they refused to do it on the excuse that it's a different crowd every night.

"That's the flavor of what I'm finding. There's a lot more. I'm so grieved I can hardly think. I'm not saying the Lakeland Outpouring is not of God (God is bigger than the men involved), although good men whom I have respected all my life are saying just that (that it's not of God), based on what they know and have seen...

"What I am saying is that we need to back up and not identify ourselves closely with Lakeland and that we need to stop repeating claims being made on the air lest we end up getting splattered with the collateral damage when certain issues of false claims, embellishments and lapses of integrity begin to come out more publicly. By the way, no one is saying that some healings have not happened - only that many false, embellished or unsubstantiated claims have been made. A number of really good men, champions of revival through the years, are actually saying that the whole thing is of the devil and that even the healings are demonically inspired. I want to be clear that I'm not going there..." [-end quote].

So here we have a 'pro-Lakeland' church checking out these facts for the first time and now deciding that they "need to back up and not identify ourselves closely with Lakeland." Pretty amazing!

Meanwhile - back to the topic of "apostles" and what is now happening in Peter Wagner's main 'ICA' organization:

One of Wagner's apostles, Robert Ricciardelli, put out an email this week saying that he has received a great deal of support for his stand against Lakeland - the majority of it from pastors. And he also made the following very significant statement:

"As a member of ICA, Peter Wagner actually caused many questions to come my way because of my membership there. I will no longer be involved with that organization and actually have not tracked well with them and some of their agendas since I have been involved with them. However, I have enjoyed the many relationships I have developed from going to the annual meetings. Most all of those relationships are also disengaging from their affiliation with ICA, because of many issues beyond Lakeland."

So clearly Robert is now leaving the ICA - as are other 'apostles' that he knows of also. I asked him to clarify this last point.

Robert wrote to me:

"The ICA leadership continues to adopt belief systems without seeking the advice and counsel of members. Many of the members do not, and will not support these beliefs, including the support of anti-biblical behavior and doctrine currently being expressed through Todd Bentley and Freshfire Ministries. In fact as ICA embraces this, they now have taken a stance that will indirectly have to embrace many of the same ministries, including "New Mystic" John Crowder and others. This escalating focus on angels, experiences, trances, etc is far from the focus of Jesus, His Kingdom, and His righteousness... Many of us who really enjoyed the ICA annual conferences are now forced to make a decision as to whether to continue our involvement with them."

Robert has also stated that he personally was never into "Dominionist" beliefs or the "hierarchical NAR agenda." His last statement to me was: "I think that there is a chance that many may disassociate with the ICA depending on Todd continuing to reveal his deceptive doctrine and Peter continuing to support such doctrine."

I wonder if Peter Wagner ever imagined that by endorsing Todd Bentley he may be sowing huge seeds of destruction in his own movement? -Perhaps only time will tell.
