Excerpts from this book

This book exposes the rise of witchcraft and paganism in the world that is driving new forms of religions. All the religions of the world are included, with exception of Christianity and Jesus Christ. Worldwide ecumenical forces are endeavoring to unite eastern religions and western Christianity. All faiths are being plunged into one melting pot hoping that a one- world religion will rise to the surface.

Man strives to reconcile Christianity with eastern beliefs; but Christianity is a relationship with Jesus, not a religion. The cornerstone erected by the New Age to create unity of faith is not Jesus Christ but meditation; not a person but a method.

1 “Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and The life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me,” (Jn. 14:6).

Culture of Peace UNITED NATIONS

When the year 2000 arrived, many believe it would be the year of spiritual change. It brought new spiritual paradigms ushering in the United Nations’ “International Year of the Culture of Peace.” It brings new pressures to establish the global management system President Clinton calls “The Third Way” It allows governments to yield responsibilities, but not control, to their “private” and “civil” partners who will be required to implement the vision.

The United Nations has been working diligently for decades to implement the one world government and one world religion as prophesied in the Bible. Hiding behind words such as: sustainable development, global warming, global consciousness, and civil liberties, they are busy implementing the plans laid out in the UN Charter, the Earth Charter, and many other UN resolutions.

These plans include a globalization effort that would eliminate state sovereignty, and Christianity, Judaism and Islamism to place the world's people and resources under the direct control of the United Nations - the same organization that seeks wisdom from spirit guides through new age meditation.

Look at the astonishing scripture in (Rev. 13:1-10) that reveals the destination of the Beast. John "in the spirit," finds himself stationed on the sands of the sea-that same great seas upon which Daniel beheld the winds striving in their fury. He becomes aware of a monstrous Beast rising out of the troubled elements. He sees horns emerging, and the number of them is ten, and on each horn a crown. He sees the heads which bear the horns, and these heads are seven, and on the heads are names of blasphemy.

In a moment the whole image of a frightful figure of the monster is before him. Its appearance is like a leopard or panther, but its feet are as the feet of a bear, and its mouth as the mouth of a lion. He saw also that the Beast had a throne, and power, and great authority. One of his heads showed marks of having been fatally wounded and slain, but the death stroke was healed. He saw also the whole earth wondering after the Beast, amazed at its majesty and power, exclaiming at the impossibility of withstanding it, and celebrating its favorable position to everything. He saw, and the Beast was speaking great and blasphemous things against God, blaspheming His name, His tabernacle, even them that tabernacle in the heaven, assailing and overcoming the saints on earth, and wielding authority over every tribe, and people, and tongue, and nations.

John saw all the dwellers upon earth, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain, did worship this Beast. And for forty-two months the monster holds its place and enacts its resistless will. This is the word picture of the monstrous Beast of the sea. He comes out of the agitated sea to become an all-authoritative player in the end times. 1

The apostle John was given in phenomenal vision a glimpse of the end of the age. (Rev. 1:10), called the "Day of the Lord" During this "day of the Lord's wrath" (Zeph. 1:18), God will punish humanity for their proud, sinful ways and their refusal to acknowledge Him as the true God. In (Rev. 9:11), an intriguing character is introduced: "And they had a king over them, which is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon," (Rev. 9:1-11).

The Spirit of the Abyss is the leader and god of The Abyss is also referred to as "the Darkness" may be, in fact, Evil Incarnate/Itself. Abaddon and Apollyon both mean "destroyer." Who is this ruling demon called the "Destroyer," who is released from the Abyss during God's wrath on mankind in the last days of this age?

POLITICAL RELIGIOUS ALLIANCES

The church-state partnerships touted by candidates Bush and Gore fit the picture. These political alliances are already being established from coast to coast, not by law, but by an army of willing and often well-meaning religious leaders.

Those who share the UN vision of the 21st Century community usually lead the parade. They seek a global village of peace and social equality – unified, not by faith in the Biblical God, but by faith in human nature and a pluralistic god-spirit operating in and through each person.

This is a plan that being implemented by trained change agents. Look at the words of Kenneth Goff, member of the U. S. Communist Party, from 1936 to 39. "We were trained in all phases of warfare, both psychological and physical for the destruction of the Capitalistic society and Christian civilization. In one portion of our studies we went thoroughly into the matter of psycho politics."

Goff goes on to say, "This was the art of capturing the minds of a nation through brainwashing and fake mental health . . . During the past few years I have noted with horror the increase of psycho political warfare upon the American public."

William Jasper, begins by quoting New Age leader, Donald Keys, who is President of Planetary Citizens and author of the critically important book, "Earth at Omega." Keys' book is entirely about the role of the United Nations in achieving "Omega Point," which is the New World Order.

Keys says, "We have meditations at the United Nations a couple of times a week and the meditation leader is Sri Chinmoy, (U.N in-house guru). Keys went on to say, "The United Nations is the chosen instrument of God . . . a divine messenger carrying the banner of God's inner vision and outer manifestation. One day the world will treasure . . . the soul of the United Nations as its very own with enormous pride, for this soul is all-loving, all-nourishing, and all-fulfilling."2

That is quite a description of the United Nations, and if you are thinking that it sounds like these people are worshiping the United Nations as a living, breathing, goddess, you are absolutely correct. This is exactly how they view the United Nations. Of course, we know from our examination of other New Age writings that the United Nations was conceived as being the beginning of the New World Order and that it would reorganize the world into the 10 Super Nations and then would hand the reign of power over to Anti-Christ.

THIS IS THE PLAN

Christian evangelism doesn't fit this utopian vision. It offends people of other faiths. "For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are saved it is the power of God," (1 Cor. 1:18). It threatens the religious leaders who have built their platform on humanitarian ideals rather than the Bible. And it clashes with the international standards for tolerance and mental health.

This spiritual shift didn't start in the nineties. Liberal ecclesiastical leaders realized more than fifty years ago that Biblical absolutes, separateness, and evangelism would block their agenda. To clear the way, they built the foundations for today's worldwide movement that would:

- * Equate Biblical truth and evangelism with hate and Intolerance
- * Redefine Christianity
- * Hold Christians accountable to global standards for mental health
- * Conform churches to the demands in UNESCO's Declaration on Religion in a Culture of Peace
- * Build the framework for global control
- * Establish the one world church.

We can see a unique glimpse into the demonic spirituality of the United Nations. Jaspar continues his expose' in the New American, "The United Nations is steadily becoming the center of a synergetic new world religion . . ."

Webster's Dictionary defines "synergetic" as the merging or reconciling differing beliefs or practices in religion or philosophy, or the attempt to carry out such reconciliation.

Now we understand. Synergetic is synonymous with the word "Ecumenical," which is the attempt to combine all the worlds' false religions, including apostate Christianity, into the New World Order Mystery of Babylon Religion of Anti-Christ.

Worldwide ecumenical forces are endeavoring to unite eastern religions and western Christianity. All faiths are being plunged into one melting pot hoping that a one-world religion will rise to the surface. Man strives to reconcile Christianity with eastern beliefs; but Christianity is a relationship with Jesus, not a religion. The cornerstone erected by the New Age to create unity of faith is not Jesus Christ but meditation; not a person but a method. 3

“Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me,” (Jn. 14:6).

Christianity reveals that it stands on the foundation that Jesus Christ is the gateway to the Father in Heaven. Jaspar continues his description of this United Nations religion. He identifies it as "a hodgepodge of weird and diabolical convergence into New Age mysticism, pantheism, aboriginal animism atheism, communism, socialism, Luciferian occultism, apostate Christianity, Islam, Taoism, Buddhism, and Hinduism."

All the mixtures of satanically inspired religions are present. You can witness all kinds of demons from every religion since ancient Babylon being represented here. This grouping literally covers the entire spectrum of false worship throughout the ages.

Jaspar then describes the strange people who are gathering at this United Nations meditation room. They are "a strange commixture of crystal worshipers, astrologers, feminists, environmentalists, cabalists, human potentiality, Eastern mystics, pop psychologists, international bankers, and leaders of mainstream Christian churches. These are the types of people who are involved in this false religious worship. being scientists, diplomats, corporate presidents, heads of state, and international bankers.

Jaspar has just described Satan worshipers in three-piece suits. One would normally associate these bizarre people with the offbeat, sandals-and-beads counterculture of the 1960's. These demonic religions are practicing their Satan worship in the United Nations in New York City.

Clearly, God's word about this Economic Babylon being possessed by every demon and filthy spirit is becoming clearer. And of course, history will tell you that the United States led the struggle initially to found the United Nations.
