I interviewed Rev. R.W. Shambach in the eighties for my television program. He told me then that he started his ministry by doing the afternoon services in the tent of A. A. Allen. He explained that he married Allen's sister. He said that he had witnessed some of the most unbelievable~ wonderful, powerful miracles in A. A. Allen's ministry. He told me emphatically that the lies told about Rev Allen were absolutely untrue.

I believe that A. A. Allen's vision concerning the Destruction of America is going happen any day. However, to understand his vision, you must realize who the Statue of Liberty is and what she represents. Read on, I believe you find the following very intriguing but frightening.

I remember my husband. Vadim invited some friends over to watch President Ronald Reagan rededicate The Statue of Liberty after its restoration. As we watched the scenes on television, I got physically ill and had to leave the room. I felt the spirit of idol worship. I went into my room and prayed for America.

WHAT DID A. A. ALLEN REALLY SEE JULY 4, 1954?

This is a vision which a revival preacher, A. A. Allen, had in July 4, 1954. The information was taken from a book that he wrote, My vision of the Destruction of America Atop Empire State Building. He saw that large part of the U.S. population will die, but America will survive; Germany survived World War II. America will survive World War III.

(Rev 17:5-9), "And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration. 7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns. 8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is. 9 And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth."

My Vision of The Destruction of America

by A. A. Allen

This is a vision by of legendary evangelist A. A. Allen. As I stepped inside the elevator at the Empire State Building, I never dreamed of the great experience, which awaited me just 86 stories up. There on the east side of the terrace, I noticed a giant telescope, of the kind into which you can drop a dime, and see for approximately fifteen miles....

As I stood with my dime between my fingers, waiting my turn, suddenly the spirit of the Lord came mightily upon me. I noticed the two giant eyes of the telescope as the man who was manipulating it turned it my direction. I was amazed that the spirit of the Lord should so move upon me, there atop the Empire State Building. Why should I feel such a surge of His spirit and power there? ...

Then suddenly I heard the voice of the Lord. It was as clear and as distinct as a voice could be. It seemed to come from the very midst of the giant telescope. But when I looked at the telescope, I knew it hadn't come from there, but directly from heaven. The voice said, "The eyes of the Lord run to and fro throughout the whole earth, to show himself strong in behalf of them whose heart is perfect toward him. Herein thou hast done foolishly. Therefore, from thenceforth, thou shalt have wars." ...

As I stepped to the telescope and dropped in my dime, immediately, the ticking started again. This ticking was an automatic clock, which would allow me to use the telescope for a definitely limited time only. ... That morning, much of the view was impaired by fog. But suddenly as the spirit of the Lord came upon me the fog seemed to clear, until it seemed that I could see for thousands of miles. But that which I was looking upon was not Manhattan Island. It was the entire North American continent spread out before me as a map is spread upon a table.

It was not the East River and the Hudson River that I saw on either side, but the Atlantic and the Pacific Oceans. And instead of the Statue of Liberty standing there in the bay on her small island, I saw her standing far out in the Gulf of Mexico. She was between the United States and me. I suddenly realized that the telescope had nothing to do with what I was seeing, but that it was a vision coming directly from God. And to prove this to myself, I took my eyes away from the telescope, so that I was no longer looking through the lens, but the same scene remained spread before me. There, clear and distinct, lay all the North American continent, with all its great cities. ...

We are presently seeing our leaders working to connect us into Canada and Mexico. I believe that God was showing A. A. Allen the time frame when his vision would begin to unfold.

Allen continues, And as I looked, suddenly from the sky I saw a giant hand reach down. That gigantic hand was reaching out toward the Statue of Liberty. In a moment her gleaming torch was torn from her hand, and in it instead was placed a cup. And I saw protruding from that great cup, a giant sword, shining as if a great light had been turned upon its glistening edge. Never before had I seen such a sharp, glistening, dangerous sword. It seemed to threaten the entire world. As the great cup was placed in the hand of the Statue of Liberty, I heard these words, "Thus says the Lord of hosts, Drink ye and be drunken, spue and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send."

Look at the Word of God, "And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication," (Rev 17:4).

This idol will be destroyed by the hand of God. It is not a loving lady standing in the east river to welcome strangers. It is a demonic image of a goddess an Illuminati statue that has been placed at the entrance of our country. Read on!

The History Channel had a program on television last night, I think the show is called Modern Marvels. The subject was the Statue of Liberty. It highlighted its French construction techniques and why and how it was built, then detailed its restoration recently. However, nothing was said of its true identity, namely, Queen Simiramis, Isis, Ashteroth, wonder why? It really went into detail about the torch and as we all know the torch does not represent freedom nor liberty but slavery and control (Illuminati torch is present at JFK and Princess Diana's grave sites). Nothing was said about its Esoteric origins, too bad . . . the truth will never be told until more wakes up . . . it was a good show but it's so sad that the elites utilize symbols like this which we all wish to believe in, into their own deviate, self-serving control.

Allen went on to say, As I heard these words, I recognized them as a quotation from Jeremiah 20:7. I was amazed to hear the Statue of Liberty speak out in reply, "I WILL NOT DRINK!" Then as the voice of the thunder, I heard again the voice of the Lord, saying, "Thus says the Lord of hosts, YE SHALL CERTAINLY DRINK." (Jer. 25:28.) Then suddenly the giant hand forced the cup to the lips of the Statue of Liberty, and she became powerless to defend herself. The mighty hand of God forced her to drink every drop from the cup. As she drank the bitter dregs, these were the words that I heard, "Should ye be utterly unpunished? Ye shall not be unpunished: for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, says the Lord of Hosts." (Jer. 25:29).

When the cup was withdrawn from the lips of Statue of Liberty, I noticed the sword was missing from the cup, which could mean but one thing. THE CONTENTS OF THE CUP HAD BEEN COMPLETELY CONSUMED! I knew that the sword merely typified war, death, and destruction, which is no doubt on the way. Then as one drunken on too much wine, I saw the Statue of Liberty become unsteady on her feet and begin to stagger, and to lose her balance. I saw her splashing in the Gulf, trying to regain her balance. I saw her stagger again and again, and fall to her knees. As I saw her desperate attempts to regain her balance, and rise to her feet again, my heart was moved as never before with compassion for her struggles.

The Idol lost her sword of the Illuminati and she drinks from the cup of absolute poison Harlot

After the cup was completely consumed, which had replaced the sword of war and death, the Lord God struck the idol with a lethal blow. Notice as the Statue struggles to stand, Allen, who was a Christian, felt great compassion for her struggles. He did not look upon this idol, who is backed by demonic powers as an enemy. His compassion is exactly typifying how the American Christians look upon the evil symbol. They love her. They believe that she symbolizes freedom. Actually, she symbolizes tyrannical slavery.

But as she staggered there in the gulf, once again I heard these words, "Ye shall drink and be drunken, and spue, and fall, and rise no more because of the sword that I shall send among you." As I watched, I wondered if the Statue of Liberty would ever be able to regain her feet - if she would ever stand again. And as I watched, it seemed that with all her power she struggled to rise, and finally staggered to her feet again, and stood there swaying drunkenly. I felt sure that at any moment she would fall again - possibly never to rise. I seemed overwhelmed with a desire to reach out my hand to keep her head above water, for I knew that if she ever fell again she would drown there in the Gulf.

Notice the anger of the Lord God concerning His defeat of the power of this satanic figure. She was not a beautiful piece of art. She was not a piece of history to be revered by masses. She was not a great light to our nation. God knew that depraved idol symbolized the evil of both wicked men and demonic. He realized that she had brought America down through her rule over the hearts of these depraved men of the Devil. They set her there to replace the touchstone of the authority of Jesus Christ over this nation.

Again, notice that although Allen believed he was seeing a vision from God, he still sympathized with the idol. America will feel the same way when they lose all their things. They will feel grief for their physical loses because they have long ago lost their spiritual sensitivity. God will not set at the table with the Devil and Jesus at the same time.

Then as I watched, another amazing thing was taking place. Far to the northwest, just over Alaska, a huge, black cloud was arising. As it rose, it was as black as night. It seemed to be in the shape of a man's head. As it continued to arise, I observed two light spots in the black cloud. It rose further, and a gaping hole appeared. I could see that the black cloud was taking the shape of a skull, for now the huge, white, gaping mouth was plainly visible. Finally the head was complete. Then the shoulders began to appear, and on either side, long, black arms. It seemed that what I saw was the entire North American continent, spread out like a map upon a table with this terrible skeleton-formed cloud arising from behind the table. It rose steadily until the form was visible down to the waist.

Then Allen is shown a cadaverous figure that is appearing from the north. He watches it as it forms. It appears a skeleton. This means that the hunger from Russia will look upon America as the answer to her dearth.

Allen says, At the waist, the skeleton seemed to bend toward the United States, stretching forth a hand toward the east and one toward the west - one toward New York and one toward Seattle. As the awful form stretched forward, I could see that its entire attention seemed too focused upon the United States, overlooking Canada - at least for the time being. As I saw the horrible black cloud in the form of a skeleton bending toward America, bending from the waist over, reaching down toward Chicago and out toward both coasts, I knew its one interest was to destroy the multitudes.

The skeleton bends and takes action to destroy the continent of America. Where are those might men of the illuminati to protect the land that they stole from the people. There is no movement of defense from the diabolical figure.

As I watched in horror, the great black cloud stopped just above the Great Lake region, and turned its face toward New York City. Then out of the horrible, great, gaping mouth began to appear wisps of white vapor, which looked like smoke, as a cigarette smoker would blow puffs of smoke from his mouth. These whitish vapors were being blown toward New York City. The smoke began to spread, until it had covered all the eastern part of the United States.

Suddenly the frightful being began to breathe its great destruction over the land. The whitish vapors blew its deadly attack with gas from coast to coast.

Then the skeleton turned to the west, and out of the horrible mouth and nostrils came another great puff of white smoke. This time it was blown in the direction of the west coast. In a few moments time, the entire west coast and Los Angeles area was covered with its vapors.

The dreadful ogre of death continued its assignment and still not one sign of defense for the masses of people. It, uninterruptedly raced toward what seemed to be its target. The Statue of Liberty. Isn't it interesting, though the evil men of the illuminati created Communism and destroyed the monarchy of Russia, it will be Russian Communism that will destroy them and all their depraved plans to rule the world?

Allen goes on to say, Then toward the center came a third great puff. As I watched, St. Louis and Kansas City were enveloped in its white vapors. Then on it came toward New Orleans. Then on they swept until they reached the Statue of Liberty where she stood staggering drunkenly in the blue waters of the Gulf. As the white vapors began to spread around the head of the Statue, she took in but one gasping breath, and then began to cough as though to rid her lungs of the horrible vapors she had inhaled.

The spirit of death ruthlessly dominates the idea of planting their goddess of liberty to enslave the people of America by blowing its deadly breathing spell.

One could readily discern by the painful coughing that those white vapors had seared her lungs. What were these white vapors? Could they signify bacteriological warfare that could destroy multitudes of people in a few moments time? Or could they be the new G-gas, the horrible nerve gas recently made known to the American public? ...

Indeed, Val Peterson, Federal Civil Defense Administrator, estimates that ... "Nerve gas used by an enemy with maximum efficiency could be deadlier than an atomic bomb." Right now you and your family, all of us, are unprotected against the threat of this terror weapon. ... The Army calls it GB; it's an odorless, colorless, tasteless nerve gas designed to destroy people with paralyzing suddenness. We have it; so do the Russians.... G-gas, as nerve gas is sometimes called, is cheap to produce, a small amount can do the job, and it leaves a nation's industrial plants, utilities and buildings intact for an occupying power....

As I looked with wonder upon the vision God had given me, I wondered could it be this horrible

G Gas, which was causing the Statue of Liberty to react so violently, as it floated about her head, looking like an innocent cloud?

Then I heard the voice of God, as He spoke: "Behold, the Lord maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof."

"And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him. "The land shall be utterly emptied, and utterly spoiled: for the Lord hath spoken this word. The earth mourneth and fadeth away, the world languisheth and fadeth away, the haughty people of the earth do languish. The earth also is defiled under the inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant. "Therefore hath the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned and few men left." (Isaiah 24:6)

As I watched, the coughing grew worse. It sounded like a person about to cough out his lungs. The Statue of Liberty was moaning and groaning. She was in mortal agony. The pain must have been terrific, as again and again, she tried to clear her lungs of those horrible white vapors. I watched her there in the Gulf, as she staggered, clutching her lungs and her breast with her hands. Then she fell to her knees. In a moment, she gave one final cough, made a last desperate effort to rise from her knees, and then fell face forward into the waters of the gulf, and lay still - still as death. Tears ran down my face as I realized that she was dead! Only the lapping of the waves, splashing over her body, which was partly under the water, and partly out of the water, broke the stillness....

Again, we see Allen tearfully agonizing with the death of the Idol. She is dead. It means that the power that made her is dead. The demons that motivated her are defeated by God. It means the Devil worshipers that elevated her presence at the gateway of our country had suffered utter trouncing at the hands of the "friend" that they had created, Communism.

Then Allen saw. Suddenly the screaming of sirens shattered the silence. Sirens that seemed to scream "RUN FOR YOUR LIVES!" Never before had I heard such shrill, screaming sirens. They seemed to be everywhere - to the north, the south, the east and the west. There seemed to be multitudes of sirens. And as I looked, I saw people everywhere running. But it seemed none of them ran more than a few paces, and then they fell. And even as I had seen the Statue of Liberty struggling to regain her poise and balance, and finally falling for the last time, to die on her face, I now saw millions of people falling in the streets, on the sidewalks, struggling. I heard their screams for mercy and help. I heard their horrible coughing, as though their lungs had been seared with fire.

They had followed these horrible men of debauchery and like their idol. They followed her into death. Notice also the paragraphs that describe some hiding in shelters, protected from the destruction. You will also notice that the context is clearly given as World War III and the wrath of God upon the whole world. All nations will suffer destruction during that time, including the U.S., but many nations will survive and so will America.

I heard the moanings and groanings of the doomed and the dying. As I watched, a few finally readied shelters. But only a few ever got to the shelters, and above the moaning and the groaning of the dying multitudes, I heard these words: "A noise shall come even to the ends of the earth; for the Lord hath a controversy with the nations, He will plead with all flesh; He will give them that are wicked to the sword, saith the Lord. Behold evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great whirlwind shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth. And the slain of the Lord shall be at that day from one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground," (Jer. 25:31-33.)

Then Allen sees a terrifying scene. He saw the United States being attack by missiles from the sea. It is believed that he saw an atomic war in action. It is interesting to note here that many have testified about underground safe places for the elite. While the masses were killed with some strange gas vapor, those who were "safely underground," were now being dealt with nuclear warfare.

Then suddenly I saw from the Atlantic and from the Pacific, and out of the Gulf, rocket-like objects that seemed to come up like fish leaping out of the water. High into the air they leaped, each headed in a different direction, but everyone toward the United States. On the ground, the sirens screamed louder. And up from the ground I saw similar rockets beginning to ascend.

To me, these appeared to be interceptor rockets although they arose from different points all over the United States. However none of them seemed to be successful in intercepting the rockets that had risen from the ocean on every side. These rockets finally reached their maximum height, slowly turned over, and fell back toward the earth in defeat.

You will notice, when the rockets fly, then there is a counter attack. The bunkers will not protect those elitist that planned the destruction of America. They will die too.

Then suddenly, the rockets, which had leaped out of the oceans like fish all, exploded at once. The explosion was earsplitting. The next thing, which I saw, was a huge ball of fire. The only thing I have ever seen which resembled the thing I saw in my vision was the picture of the explosion of the H-bomb, somewhere in the South Pacific some months ago. In my vision, it was so real I seemed to feel a searing heat from it.

One of the elements that make this vision authentic is the mention of interceptor missiles, which did not exist until the advent of STARWARS, Strategic Defense Missiles that are supposed to be able to hit incoming nuclear missiles; but many people say they cannot do the job. This prophecy says they cannot.

The judgement of God will vanquish all His enemies.

Allen continues his describe his apostolical vision. As the vision spread before my eyes, and I viewed the widespread desolation brought about by the terrible explosions, I could not help thinking, "While the defenders of our nation have quibbled over what means of defense to use, and neglected the only true means of defense, faith and dependence upon the true and living God, the thing, which she greatly feared, has come unto her! How true it has proven that 'Except the Lord keep the city, the watchman watcheth but in vain.'"

Then as the noise of battle subsided, to my ears came this quotation from Joel, the second chapter: "Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of the Lord cometh for it is nigh at hand. "A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: a great people and a strong: there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after it, even to the years of many generations.

"A fire devoureth before them: and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the Garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, and nothing shall escape them. The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run. Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong people set in baffle array. Before their face the people shall be much pained: all faces shall gather blackness.

"They shall run like mighty men: they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march everyone on his ways, and they shall not break their ranks: Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk everyone on in his path: and when they fall upon the sword, they shall not be wounded. "The shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall, they shall climb upon the houses; they shall enter in at the windows like a thief. "The earth shall quake before them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining," (Joel 2:1-10).

Then the voice was still. The earth, too, was silent, the silence, with the silence of death. And then to my ears came another sound - a sound of distant singing. It was the sweetest music I had ever heard. There was joyful shouting, and sounds of happy laughter. Immediately, I knew it was the rejoicing of the saints of God. I looked, and there high in the heaven, above the smoke and poisonous gases, above the noise of battle, I saw a huge mountain. It seemed to be of solid rock, and I knew at once that this was the Mountain of the Lord. The sounds of music and rejoicing were coming from a cleft, high up in the side of the rock mountain. It was the saints of God who were doing the rejoicing. It was God's own people who were singing and dancing and shouting with joy, safe from all harm which had come upon the earth, for they were hidden away in the cleft of the rock.

There in the cleft, they were shut in, protected by a great, giant hand which reached out of the heavens, and which was none other than the hand of God, shutting them in, until the storm be overpassed. "Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to the flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption." (Gal. 6:7).

LET US EXAMINE THE MEANING OF STATUE OF LIBERTY

To understand the significance of A. A. Allen's vision, you must have wisdom concerning The Statue of Liberty. It has become the most cherished symbol of the United States of America. Jesus Christ was put out of the schools and all public places. No one wanted to know Him anymore. They followed after false prophets both politically and religiously. Their minds were darkened. They became secular-traditional Christians who had lost their God, Jesus, and followed after the idols of the world. Although the Lord was patient, many never returned to the God of their first love. They blindly followed people that led them into worshiping their flesh and devils. As iniquity spread across the land, time simply ran out. God said, enough is enough.

This pagan symbol, the Statue of Liberty, became a key center of America and even Christians found a feeling of deep affection for this idol. America was founded upon Christian principles, holding Jesus Christ as the center of her faith. She had sent evangelists and missionaries to bring the Gospel of good news that Jesus Christ is the truth and was sent to redeem the souls of men. But now, they were blinded by the powers of mind control, sex and materialism. They promoted a cold, if it feels good, do it, church. They neglected their children and gave them to the gods of fantasy, like Harry Potter and the Chronicles of Narnia books and movies. They played, and played until the time was over.

At the same time, there have always been men with a different world view. They served the gods of Babylon and nature. They wanted to use America to bring about their vision of a New World Government and New Religion and a New World leader. These secretive have worked in the background of our country working to usurp our Constitution of freedom and change it into a fascistic form of a dictatorship. These men and women worship another god. They worship the gods of the Babylonians, gods of the sea, earth, stars, war, and sexual perversions.

ORIGINS OF THE STATUE OF LIBERTY

What we were NOT taught in school significant facts regarding the true creation of the Statue of Liberty are those pertinent facts that remain largely unknown revolve around the unquestionable history of the Statue's origin as well as the meaning and implication behind the statue.

French Sculptor, Frederic Bartholdi, designed the Statue of Liberty. Bartholdi did not develop the concept of the statue. The idea for creating a statue of liberty and freedom was first proposed by another Frenchman by the name of Edward Laboulaye. It was Laboulaye's idea and determination during the American Civil War that carried the idea from a simple notion to an actual project. Laboulaye, a French Freemason proposed the idea of a giant statue replicating a goddess that the Masonic movement idolized. Laboulaye proceeded to raise the financial support and commissioned Bartholdi to provide the sculpture of this goddess of illumination from ancient times.

WHAT FALSE DEITY STANDS IN THE EAST RIVER

Roman goddess Libertas:

Libertas was the name of an ancient Roman goddess adopted by the Romans perhaps as early as the 5th century BC and certainly by the 4th Century BC. She was referred to as the goddess of personal freedom and liberty. In fact Libertas meant freedom. So liberty means freedom. There are two names that describe the one concept we call freedom. Liberty = Freedom and Freedom = Liberty. This goddess was the goddess of freedom because she promoted the ideals for the personal freedom to do anything that felt good. She was called the matron goddess of prostitution because she promoted sexual freedom. Indeed, she had invented the concept. Slaves considered her their goddess in the hopes of winning their freedom. Many women who gained freedom later turned to prostitution to survive and thereby retained Libertas as their goddess, especially if they became priestesses in the Libertas cult. Libertas was also a goddess of war in order to fight for freedom. She was also referred at times as the goddess of victory because freedom must have victory in order to survive.

This goddess was also the goddess of immigrants. The whole idea of immigration connoted the idea of freedom. Her popularity was also unique because of her unique doctrine of hearing personal prayers. This unique doctrine was something that most of the pagan deity doctrines were not disposed toward.

We know that this goddess existed because of the records left behind to us. We have the ancient writings of Cicero who writes of this goddess and her Temple on the Aventine Way in Rome. She was depicted on some Roman coins as wearing a freedom cap and having a wreath along with a spear or sometimes a sword. Such coin images were not the only depictions. Sometimes she was well robed and at other times seductively unclothed in both sculptures and paintings. We know of Libertas being referred to as the Mother of Harlots by the famous Roman historian (and senator) Cicero's writings. Cicero indicates that she was also a very early goddess of the Greeks even before early Roman civilization developed.

Upon further investigation we find that the Greeks had acquired knowledge of this being from previous empires in the Middle East and Egypt. This goddess was called Ashtoreth in Hebrew and in the Old Testament's Greek version (the Septuagint). Ashtoreth becomes transliterated into the Greek as Astarte, which became the early Greek name for the goddess until it was later changed to Aphrodite. The Hebrew term Ashtoreth was itself a transliteration from the Babylonian dialect (Akkadian) term of Ishtar.

Ishtar in the most ancient of times was also referred to by the Sumerian dialect as Inanna or Ninanna meaning the Queen of Heaven or Lady of Heaven. In Canaan this deity was called Ashtaroth. The Hittites called her Shaushka. The Phoenicians on Cypress initially referred to her as Astarte. Isis was the name the Egyptians gave to her. This is how the goddess became introduced to the earliest Greeks.

We know this transformation in part due to the written texts found by archaeologists plus from studying the character traits and descriptions. For instance all these deities were actually just one goddess and she was associated with the planet Venus. Most had phonetic language roots in the transliterating aspects of the name Ishtar and this remained so until the Greeks changed the name to Aphrodite. Later the Romans referred to her in the Latin, initially as Libertas and later as Venus when they accepted more than just the Liberty doctrines.

It seems that the allure of Ishtar was her doctrine of holy sex or salvation by holy sexual relations with a temple priestess or priest as a means of purification and holiness. Of course, this entailed paying the priestess or priest and thus it was officially sanctioned and therefore "holy" prostitution. Ishtar introduced that whole concept to the human race. This is why she was referred to as the Mother of Harlots. Harlots had been deemed to be social outcasts so she was also referred to as the Mother of exiles.

What was Ishtar's legacy in Babylon? She was the chief goddess of Babylon and all of Babylonia. There was no other goddess more honored than she. She was equated to have nearly the same power as the chief god of Babylon, the sun god Utu, also known as Shamesh. In later years, the chief male deities would flip-flop in popularity. The most famous and prominent during the times of Israel's nationhood was "Baal."(the bull god) [Baal was also called Marduk/Mardok/Merodach/Bel] Baal was identified with the planet Mars and was called the god of War. His name meant "Lord of the air" for his superior powers and the supremacy of the air. It was claimed that he as well as Ishtar and all the other deities "flew" among and from the "stars in heaven."

Connecting Ishtar to the Statue of Liberty:

The Statue of Liberty was a Masonic concept conceived from within Freemasonry. The chief promoter and fund-raiser for the project was Edward Laboulaye and he collaborated with the sculptor Frederic Bartholdi to develop a statue of Masonic enlightenment. The statue was developed from within the highest doctrines of Freemasonry. This "enlightenment" took its form in various symbols found in the sculpture itself.

#1. The Crown of seven Spikes: This symbol was to represent the enlightenment of the Babylonian sun god Shamesh/Utu. The idea was that this sun god's occultic illumination could be focused by each of the seven spikes of the crown. Each spike would flash this occultic enlightenment to each of the seven "horas" or large landmasses of the world. In other words, each spike would flash occultic enlightenment to a continent on planet earth. Each of the seven spikes would then be representative of one of the seven large landmasses or continents of the world.

#2. The Tablets: A common misconception is that the tablets represent the 10 Commandments that God gave to Moses. This is not true. The tablets are engraved only with the Roman numerals standing for July 4th, 1776. According to the preeminent Statue Historian, Marvin Trachtenberg in his book "The Statue of Liberty" the tablets represented a generic notion of the concept of law. This should not be confused with the Laws of Moses. Freemasonry gives lip service to Judaism, Christianity and Islam as lawgiving religions but Freemasonry tries to synthesize all religions into one central focus...the idea of "law" in general. Hence the tablets being held by the Statue of Liberty carry that general meaning.

#3. The Robe: In the original planning, the Statue of Liberty was designed in the initial stages to be in color. She was to be wearing the royal robes of scarlet and purple. It became obvious that for reasons of monetary purposes the statue must be made from copper. The use of copper precluded the use of any color schemes. Thus the original plans for scarlet and purple robes were abandoned.

#4. The Torch: This item was originally designed to be a golden cup filled with the wine of freedom. This golden cup remained in the planning and was actually made. However, before completion and shipping of the entire statue, the New York Port authorities asked if there could be some sort of modification to allow for an eternal flame or light to be designed into the statue so that ships could use her as a night time navigational aid. Bartholdi consented to make modifications to the basic cup design to allow for a natural gas flame to be utilized. The torch we see today is actually the same type of cup design used in ancient times for drinking wine. It featured a handle for the cup at the bottom and the handle looked much like a stick. The golden aspect itself was altered again to conform to the needs of the natural gas flame. The actual, original golden cup was later sold by the project to the Czar of Russia, Czar Nicholas. In 1917 during the Russian revolution the Communist government took possession of it. The cup has remained in Russian hands but in 1997 was reportedly offered for sale by the Russian government to help pay off Russia's foreign debts. This author has not been able to determine whether or not the cup was actually sold or not. It is only known that the cup is still in existence.

#5. "Mother of Exiles" is a key term in the poem by Emma Lazarus. In her famous poem about the statue, (now etched into the base of the statue) Lazarus refers to the woman as "The Mother of Exiles." The poem has forever indelibly linked the statue to immigrants from around the world. The statue is the patron "saint" of immigrants everywhere. Oddly enough, the Babylonian goddess Ishtar was also the patron goddess of immigrants in Babylon because as a goddess of personal freedom, she brought hope to immigrants seeking to make a better life for themselves in Babylon. So too for this "Mother of Exiles." In fact, if we try to transliterate the English term "Mother of Exiles" into the Greek... Mother as a word has similar phonetic sounds. Doing the same with "exiles" from English into Koine-Greek, the Koine-Greek listener would link it to a similar Greek word that connoted deep inhalation of air or "heavy breathing." This is tied into the Greek word "epithumia" which in English is normally translated as "lust" but the literal meaning in Koine-Greek meant literally "heavy breathing" and was connoted with desire. Now this terminology is then linked to the word "Porneoh" from which we get the word Pornography. Porneoh=lust fulfillment by sexual relations in exchange for money...which again was the main claim to fame for Ishtar... holy sexual prostitution. Ishtar worship is the very first instance of prostitution in human history and it was deemed "holy!" Now, this may indeed just be an interesting coincidence but remember Revelation 17:5 where the woman called Mystery Babylon is referred to as the "Mother of Harlots."

Scriptural traits of the woman of Revelation chapter 17:4.

The woman is described in Revelation 17:4 as having a golden cup in her hand. This fits in with the Statue of Liberty, who has indeed a golden cup in her outstretched hand. (See the Statue of Liberty Website Link to see a picture of the original golden globe flame, which replaced the original cup when NYC authorities asked to modify the cup to a light source for shipping. The original golden cup was then sold to the Czar of Russia, where it remains today. Here's the link: <http://www.nps.gov/stli/prod02.htm#Statue>

This cup is described as having "bdelugma" in the Greek text. You will see it in the KJV word "abominations." Now this word is Strong's Code #946. It means a foul thing, detestable, usually of idols...it comes from the root word bdeoh = "To break wind" or "pass gas"...it is something that is very smelly and extremely offensive. Now, the Statue of Liberty has inside the torch the fuel for its flame... "natural gas" or bdelugma. Is this a coincidence between scripture and the Statue of Liberty? I suggest strongly that this is no coincidence. The torch is actually being described in Revelation 17:4 as is the woman. The woman in Chapter 17 is the symbol for the super-nation that is code-named "Mystery Babylon." But this is not the only connection between the Statue and the woman of Revelation 17:4.

The crown of seven spikes is also being described in Revelation 17:9. Here we see the woman referred to as sitting on seven "horas." This is the same word that the mystical religion of Freemasonry doctrines uses from the Greek mystics who kept the doctrine alive from Ishtar worship. The idea of the enlightenment of the sun god Shamesh-Utu...or Rah in the Egyptian language was that it would be shined to all of the seven "horas" or continents of the world. These Greek mystics used that Greek term "horas." Marvin Trachtenberg in his book on the Statue of Liberty (Viking Press, 1977) refers to the crown's seven spikes as doing just that. It was to enlighten the seven continents with Shamesh's occultic wisdom. Revelation 17:9 uses that same terminology.

Now, the KJV and the NASB English versions translate "horas" as meaning "mountain." Mountain is indeed the normal meaning of the word in Greek. But the Greeks general and overall root word basis was "large land mass" for which mountain usually fit the definition. Unfortunately some new translations miss this point entirely and have translated the word "horas" as meaning hill. This comes from the erroneous assumption that the verse is referring to the seven hills of Rome and that the woman is Rome. This is a wrong assumption. Moulton & Milligan's Greek Vocabulary cites that the correct word for "hill" in Koine-Greek (and in other Greek dialects) was the Roman word "bounos" and this was always the word that was to be used when referring to the seven hills of Rome. After all, this was the Greek word that was borrowed from the Romans. Everyone referred to Rome's seven hills as "bounos" ...and not "horas." Therefore, the assumption that Revelation 17:9 refers to the seven hills of Rome is complete error. The verse then must be referring to the continents where the Woman's enlightenment rays are flashed from her seven spikes in her crown.

Now some skeptics will point out that no crown is mentioned in Revelation 17:4. However, Revelation 18:7 calls her Queen and what do all Queens wear to prove their position as a Queen? A crown. This is also substantiated by Isaiah 47: 1-9... where in the KJV she is referred to as a Lady...but in the original Hebrew the word designates female royalty as either Queen or Princess. So here again we have a connection between the woman and another scriptural passage that is very subtle in its attempt to signal to us the identity of this woman. It is a signal that couldn't have been known nor comprehended for 1800 years.

(Rev 17:5-8), "And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY (A MYSTERY of iniquity-darkness), BABYLON (Witchcraft-occult) THE GREAT, (goddess worship) THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS (Queen of Heaven) AND ABOMINATION OF THE EARTH. 6 And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration. 7 And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns. 8 The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is."

Understanding the phrase "Mother of Harlots."

Let's examine what the term "mother" means. The term refers to the act of giving Birth or of bearing to fruition of something in its most generic form. In this case, the reference is obvious in that the woman is bearing forth or starting something. In regards to apocalyptic symbolism the connotation is that of a "starting point." The term "Harlot" of course means prostitute. The term in Koine-Greek is "porneoh" and refers to sexual relations in exchange for money.

Now, those who wish to claim that Revelation 17:1-9 is all-symbolic of a false church fails to understand the basic terms here. They make the mistake of separating chapter 17 from chapter 18. Then they fail to understand that the terms are clearly referencing the goddess Ishtar and her doctrine of holy prostitution. Salvation by sexual prostitution is the key doctrine of the mystery religion of Ishtar. Indeed Ishtar's religion was always called a "mystery." In Revelation the key aspect of the mentioned prostitution is money and power. This is the whole ongoing theme of chapter 18, especially verses 3, and then 9-19 and 22-23. Then again in Revelation 19:2. So, Revelation 17 has nothing to do with spiritual harlotry as one thinks of the metaphors for Israel. In Revelation 17 and 18 this Mystery Babylon plays spiritual harlotry primarily in the aspect of money and power. Of all the reasons in scripture given for her divine destruction all the reasons reference back to the abuse of power and money and her rejection of God's sovereignty. ²

Tell me, have you ever noticed the statue on top of the Capitol? Errr. . . Christian nation? Do you recognize the Statue that is shown above?

On December 2, 1863, the last section of the Statue of Freedom was put in place on top of the dome amid a great celebration with military salutes.

The Statue of Freedom

The Statue of Liberty -- The Largest Idol Ever Made by Human Hands.

In doing the research into the statue, I discovered that no statue has ever been made that was as big as the Statue of Liberty. The previous record holder was the Colossus statue of Rhodes.

1. This statue stands atop the United States Capitol building on top of the dome.

2. This building is of course the location where both houses of Congress meet to conduct the business of the nation and pass laws. The Statue of Freedom was designed by another Mason, Thomas Crawford. He too designed the statue to be his rendition of the Roman goddess "Libertas."³

3. Idolatry and Witchcraft work in your mind but it will capture and imprison your spirit. It is easy to see the reason that the failures of our lawmakers are so great.

We have already covered the connection between Libertas and Ishtar, so we won't restate the facts on this issue. Suffice it to say that this statue shows the goddess in the garb of a warriorress~... another character trait of Ishtar. She was also called the warrior goddess because she would fight for personal freedom and liberty. So, we have the second largest idol made by human hands and it stands atop the location where our lawmakers meet. We again have another occultic symbol over the heads of lawmakers of the USA. Is it any wonder the nation is in the shape it is in?⁴

The whole world system lies in the evil one. Mystery Babylon is very wicked. The Mystery of Babylon is the religion of idolatry and witchcraft with Satan at the center piece of its worship. He wants to steal the throne of God. He believes that he can do this by stealing the hearts of God's creation, humankind.

Christians must return to the word of God. We have spun out of control to the principles of the world through many false ministers. The foundation of the Church must be based on Jesus and His Word. It has not changed, remember the revival under Josiah took place when Hilkiah found the Book of the Law of the Lord.

Christians know that Jesus Christ is presently sitting at the right hand of God the Father.

BACK TO A. A. ALLEN'S VISION

No doubt many who are reading this are wondering, "Will America actually be invaded? Will she have to pay for her wickedness and sin, and for turning her back upon God? Will the wrath and fury of God's judgment fall upon Uncle Sam? Will America be invaded by Russia? Will Russia use the horrible G gas that can kill millions in a few seconds time? Will she resort to biological warfare that could kill literally millions over night? Will Russia resort to the use of hydrogen weapons? Could God allow such a horrible thing to happen to America? In reply to all these questions, permit me to quote a few scriptures, and make a few thought-provoking statements.⁵

America has been sowing with a free hand, preparing for a tremendous harvest - but what has she sown? She has sown over seventy million babies aborted. She has encouraged divorce, witchcraft, She has instituted laws to protect the perverse, to remove God from its land. Her churches following another Jesus, another gospel, another spirit. The rich stealing from the poor, and we could go on and on. God declares that as sure as America has sown, SHE SHALL REAP!

"The wicked shall be turned into Hell, and all nations that forget God," (Psa. 9:17).

"The hand of our God is upon all them for good that seek him but his power and his wrath is against all that forsake him." (Ezra 8:22).

"If ye be willing and obedient ye shall eat the good of the land, but if ye rebel and refuse, ye shall be devoured with the sword." (Isa. 1:19, 20).

It is my firm conviction, based upon the authority of God's word, that any nation which forgets God to the extent that America has forgotten Him - any nation that rebels and refuses to walk in obedience to God's word as America has refused and rebelled shall be destroyed, and that without remedy." "He that being often reprov'd, hardeneth his neck shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy." (Prov. 29:1).⁶

In the light of these scriptures, I am convinced that America is on God's list! ... Never did a generation of people live in such critical times. Decay has already progressed far. Judgment is on the way. And there is only one hiding place from the wrath of God. That hiding place is in the cleft of the Rock, Christ Jesus, protected by His mighty hand.

My friend, have you found the cleft in the rock? Has the protecting hand of God shut you in? Do you have on the wedding garments? Are you ready for the wonderful coming of Jesus Christ? If the storm should strike tonight, would you be hidden in that cleft in the rock, which is Christ?⁷

The apostle Paul speaks of two dreadful events that will occur just prior to Jesus' return. First, Paul reveals the Church in this last day that there will be a falling away from the faith. Second, that an evil spirit of the Antichrist will overtake many turning them to doctrines of devils.

“While they promise them liberty , they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage,” (2 Pet. 2:19).

(Rev 22:7). “Behold, I come quickly: blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.”

(Rev 22:13-21), “I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last. 14 Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. 15 For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie. 16 I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star. 17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely. 18 For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: 19 And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book. 20 He which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus. 21 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.”
