Former African Witch Doctor, Bishop Samuel Vagalas Kanco's testimony concerning his journey out of deep-family witchcraft will send cold shivers down your spine. This usual testimony concerns his years being a wizard and trained in the City Under the Sea. "That's right.

<http://www.patholliday.com/ebooks.php>

I lived under the sea with devils for twelve years!" He says.

CITY UNDER THE SEA - "I know that many will not believe this testimony concerning the spiritual City Under the Sea. The city does spiritually exist. I know, because I personally spent twelve years under the sea. This is my testimony of residing with the demon gods under the sea. The city under the sea is not a hidden place from many people of Africa . . . " It is impossible for me to describe to you the splendor of this awesome place. Physically you won't see it but spiritually you can see it. However, I have never seen a city on this earth more beautiful than this mysterious underwater metropolis. There were giant futuristic crystal skyscrapers and brilliant lazar lights bedazzling the currents of the sea. It was a spellbinding place, beyond words, it reminds you of a spiritual Disney World. The streets were made of gold — not real gold but something that appeared like gold. There is nothing in the world that could compare to this enchanting place, such a stunning, majestic, and ravishing habitation. It was apocalyptical, fairyland.

DWELLING PLACE FOR DEMONS . . . The city that I lived in for twelve years is located near the coast of Ghana. This spiritual city is highly organized. I have stood before the throne of Satan. . . The sorcery world is real and highly organized . . . The Bible reveals that the spirits dwelling under the sea do exist in (Rev. 13).

It is an exhilarating experience to see how Jesus, supernaturally called him out of his family's generational witchcraft and gave him the commission "to go and tell My people what I have done for you."

Bishop Kanco's dramatic conversion was similar to an Apostle Paul's spiritual born again experience. He says, "It was like a powerful spiritual force that hit me in the face when I was pushed through the church door by the invisible hand of Jesus. I wanted to turn and run away but I could not because the invisible hand had a firm hold on the back of my pants. I felt a strange atmosphere in the building. I had never felt anything like it in my life. Finally, the invisible hand pushed me down in the last pew of the church . . . " They were singing and praising God with joy. Their songs were piercing through my cold heart, "Jesus, Jesus, Jesus, there's just something about that Name . . . " My fingernails tightly clenched were digging ridges into the palms of my hands. Sweat was pouring out of my skin.

“We hate them,” the demons growled. “Remember how much you hate them too . . .

Don’t listen to those stupid Christians”

A CHOSEN VESSEL

My testimony concerns the Lord's mercy, grace and deliverance from being a powerful wizard. It is also a confirmation that there is no sin that His blood cannot wash away to make a person's spirit as white as snow My story is one of hope for the billions of people who wish to be free from the snares of the Devil. Jesus can free those who are entrapped by idolatry and from family witchcraft ties. My family's religion is based on a mixture of the worship of idols and ancestors. They were worshipers of idols such as gods of sun, moon, earth, and trees, monkeys, snakes, etc. These were the only gods that we knew. Today, Jesus has saved my entire family!

Excepts- The Witch Doctor and the Man Finds Christ, Dr. Pat Holliday, Ph.D. 1

When Jesus rescued me out of the clutches of Satan, I had been a wizard for twelve years.

Even so, God had other plans for my life. He chose me, supernaturally saved, delivered me. He trained and called me and wants to use my background to reveal to His church the mysteries of His majestic authority over Satan's schemes and the powers of darkness. Jesus wants to deliver His people. 1

Bishop Kanco is from Accra, Ghana, West Africa.
